RETURNS FROM HOUSTON, TEXAS

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin J. House Jr., Appomattox, Va., Field Representative for Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society, has just returned from an all expense-paid "Astro Holiday" in Houston, Texas. The trip and three-day sojourn at the Shamrock Hilton Hotel was awarded to Mr. House as a result of a year-long promotional effort by field representatives of the Woodmen. Only top producers could earn the trip and bring a guest.

Principal highlight of the occasion was a visit to the immense Astrodome, where the trip winners had dinner in the Domeskeller, and then witnessed a completely air-conditioned ballgame between Chicago and the Houston Astros.

Mr. House, however, doesn't even get time for a deep breath -- next year's contest has already begun!

Mrs. Tom Maxwell and Kim. Visiting in the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Burge, Jr. and Mrs. S. G. Martin.

Mrs. W. C. Story, Irene and Tony visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Goodman , Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris, Ronnie, Carolyn and Mrs. S. G. Martin Monday night.

ABBY & ALEX ENJOY 'TIMES'

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Elliott, now living in Germany, have written to Mrs. Calvin Robinson to say how much they enjoy hometown news.

The TIMES-VIRGINIAN has been airmailed to them each week for the past three months. In writing, Mrs. Elliott (the former Abby Paulette) says "... to make a three months story short, Alex and I love our apartment, it's very modern. We live with a German family who speak no English. They are very kind and we can communicate with them very well.

"Alex is doing fine with his work. On week ends we like to visit the other Americans and ride through Germany, to France, Switzerland, Luxembourg and Belgium, I still prefer the good old U.S.A. to any of them.

"We leave Saturday morning on our vacation, driving to Rotterdam and going to England by ferry. It will be one vacation I shall remember.

"I wish my whole family could come for a visit. This whole trip is like one large vacation. (Mrs. Nellie Paulette plans to visit her daughter and son-in-law at Christmas time.)

County Winner Will Compete

While hundreds of Virginia boys have their hearts set on getting to South Boston next week for the state Dixie Youth Baseball Tournament, there are a bunch of young girls who have the same notion.

Not that they are going to play baseball. No, they are not going to do that, but the young ladies, of the same age of their ball playing boy friends, have come to be a featured part of the annual Dixie Youth Baseball State Tournament.

They will be contestants in the Miss Dixie Youth Baseball contest, and there will be up to 26 of them, including Cindy Harris of Appomattox. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harris.

Each Virginia league is eligible to nominate a candidate for the Miss Dixie Youth Baseball title. All of those entering the contest will take part in the opening ceremonies prior to the first tournament game. One of them will be chosen Miss Dixie Youth Baseball for 1970, succeeding the reigning queen, Sharon Hodges of South Boston, who will be on hand to help crown the new titlist.

The state Dixie Youth tournament, an eight team, double elemination affair, will be played at South Boston's Carter Field beginning on Wednesday, July 29.

The champion will qualify to enter the Dixie World series in Bartow, Florida, Aug. 17.

Also invited to attend the state tournament and participate in the opening ceremonies, scheduled for 6:15 pm opening day, are the three honorary Dixie Youth Baseball directors in Virginia – Coach Mac Pitt of the University of Richmond, Coach Jerry Claiborne of Virginia Tech and representative W. C. (Dan) Daniel of Danville.

The Bedford National league is the defending state champion.

Morning Star Baptist Church

We would like to thank the visiting churches, pastors and friends who helped to make our revival a success.

Rev. J. W. Paige and the Mt. Obed Choir were in charge of the Sunday Morning Service.

Rev. Winston Jones was in charge of the afternoon service. Several beautiful selections were rendered by the Berry Singers.

Dinner was served by the ladies of the church. Everyone enjoyed the day.

Did not our hearts burn within us as Rev. J. D. Moore spoke to us each night from the following subjects: Monday night, Getting Away from God; Mt. Airy Jr. Choir rendered music. Tuesday, How the Prodigal Son Came Home; Wednesday night, The Judgment of the Flood. Galilee Jr. Choir rendered music. Thursday, The Necessity in Seeking God First. Friday, The Out Living of the Christian Life. Mt. Airy Sr. Choir rendered music.

On the second Sunday in August at 11:30 a.m. Our guest speaker will be the Rev. M. M. Harris of Lynchburg. Everyone is invited.

REV. OMAR BURNETT

REVIVAL

Rev. Omar Burnett will be the guest evangelist at Revival Services to be held at Red Oak Baptist Church, July 26-31 at 7:45 each evening.

Special music will be featured during the services. The pastor, Rev. G. Edward Hughes, extends to the public a cordial invitation to attend.

Prize Cucumber From Garden

It may be a dry year for some gardeners, but extra care (and extra moisture) produced this long 16 inch cucumber for Mrs. Nellie Thompson (right) who came in with a neighbor, Mrs. Clara Hanenkrat (left) to show the paper staff "how to grow 'em in Appomattox". The cucumber is 6 1/2 inches in circumference.
